SIDNEY LITTLEFIELD, E. STONEHAM NATIVE, HONOR GUEST AT 98

The Dec. 12 issue of the Brockton Daily Enterprise tells of the observance of the 98th birthday of Sidney Littlefield of Abington, Mass. Mr. Littlefield has several relatives in this vicinity, including a brother, Horace Littlefield, of Bethel. Many of our readers will be interested in the account which follows.

Deacon Sidney Littlefield of the First Baptist church was the guest of honor at a "This Is Your Life" program Sunday evening at the church in honor of his 98th birthday anniversary. A large number of friends and townspeople were on hand.

Although Mr. Littlefield knew that there would be some recognition of his 98th year, he was surprised to learn that a "This Is Your Life" had been planned, and the guest of honor's nephew, Lloyd Hathaway, began the program as master of ceremonies with the words: "Once in a generation, a church is privileged to have an occasion to celebrate the birthday anniversary of one of its members."

Mr. Littlefield was born in East Stoneham, Me., on Dec. 11, 1857, the oldest of four boys.

The picture of a dog named "Leo" owned by the guest of honor as a youth was shown as Raynor Littlefield, of Bryant's Pond, Maine, nephew of Sidney, appeared on the program to tell a story concerning this dog. After having lived in West Virginia for a while, Mr. Littlefield's family returned to Stoneham, Me., to make their home, and in his early twenties, he was employed at a pool factory in Bryant's Pond, Me. During this period of his life, Mr. Littlefield met and married Miss Ethel Wyman of Peru, Me. Walton G. Wyman, brother-in-law, appeared next on the program to tell of this marriage.

The guest of honor started to sell nursery stock, after the pool mill job. It was while selling in the middle and central part of Massachusetts that Mr. Littlefield became associated with his friend, Windsor H. Wyman, pastor of the North Abington Baptist church, who sold nursery stock on the side.

Mr. and Mrs. Littlefield decided to come to North Abington to make their home in 1893 and in 1894 purchased their home at 423 Adams street. They moved into this residence a few months before Windsor H. Wyman completed the building of his home next door. His son, Donald D. Wyman, appeared next on "This Is Your Life" to tell of the Littlefields as he recalled them.

In 1896 Mr. Littlefield decided to build a greenhouse for nursery stock and three years later he built an additional one. His daughter, Mrs. Theo. Nielsen, told about these days. The guest of honor joined the church in 1899 and for more than half a century was active, serving as choir director, and superintendent of the Sunday school. He was elected a deacon in 1903, and he also taught Sunday school classes for years. A 1911 picture of a class of young ladies was shown by Mrs. Charles Bellows.

It was in the year 1906 that Walter Wyman, who was to become a partner of Mr. Littlefield's for 25 years joined in the establishment of Littlefield-Wyman. During this period, Mr. Littlefield became interested in crossing and carnations, and he developed "Miss Theo," "Orchid Beauty," "Scarlet Monarch," "Golden Wonder," and his outstanding success the "Sidney Littlefield" carnation. Harold Patton of Tewksbury, a member of the New England Carnation Growers Association, appeared next on the program.

In 1921, a new minister was called and Mr. Littlefield was a leading part in the choice. Rev. Arnold Perren, now pastor of the Beth Eden Baptist church in Watkinson, served the local church for many years. He appeared next to tell of Mr. Littlefield in this era. Although he retired in 1931, the guest of honor continued his active in church and civic affairs, and after "This Is Your Life" told of Mr. Littlefield's life to the present day.

Following the program Mr. Littlefield was presented with gifts and refreshments were served under the direction of chairman Mrs. Allen Hoyt.

COMMENTS FROM THE TOWN MANAGER'S OFFICE

We have, as you know, been quite concerned about the loss of the use of the American LaFrance number a few weeks ago. Since that time we have contacted about every reliable source on the East Coast to try to find one to take its place. We have located one we believe that will very well meet our needs. This is a new 1954 Mack, built for a department in Pennsylvania. At time of delivery it was rejected, due to the fact that one of their men had difficulty in getting under the wheel; this man weighed 340 lbs. The capacity of this pump is one and one-half times the capacity of the one on the American LaFrance. The size of the water tank may need an addition. We expect to have this in town for your examination in a few days. The pump was built to sell for something over $16,000. We have an offer of it for $12,000. A Town meeting will be called probably Friday evening Dec. 30th for your consideration.

GOULD ACADEMY

Gould Takes Norway 53-41

Gould Academy, after dropping two conference games away, came through with a 53-41 win here last Friday to drop Norway into last place. Merle White carried the fight and led the scoring with 18 points. Knight and Jenckes followed with 16 and 12 points respectively. Roberts, although scoreless, proved a big help as he handled most of the rebounds off the opponents' board. Willard came through with five points from his guard position.

Norway lacked height and shooting ability but made up for it in fight. They pressed hard at all times and the Huskies found it difficult to penetrate for short shots. Lebroke and Judkins led the visitors scoring with 13 and 12 points.

In the preliminary the J.V. starting line-up played good ball as they built up a big margin of 30-11 at half time. Whitten scored 14 points and Ted White 8 to lead the Huskies understudies. The final score was 51-30.

Read Mark 14-15.
Behold the Lamb of God, which takes away the sin of the world. (John 1:29.)

AUGUSTINE says, "Our souls are restless until they rest in Thee." We long to feel at home with God because we are made in His image. Hence much of our confusion and sense of futility come about because we have not found God. Moreover, there is joy in the heart of the Eternal when we place our lives in such a position that He can find us.

Human experiences testify to two great facts—sin and salvation. D. Ross writes "Underneath all the arches of Bible history, throughout the whole grand temple of Scripture, these two voices ever echo—Man is ruined! Man is redeemed!"

Christ comes today to release us from sin and selfishness and to bring us back to God. He comes to invest life with purpose and significance by pointing us to the path of service. Behold the Lamb of God, who has come to take away the sin of the world—your sin and my sin—and redeem us.

Prayer
Our heavenly Father, we confess to Thee our sin and guilt. We are not so good as we could be. We have followed self-will rather than Thy will; we have turned everyone to his own way. May the vision of the Christ illumine our spirits and redeem us. In Jesus' name, Amen.

BEAR RIVER GRANGE

Bear River Grange No. 285 met at their hall Saturday night with W. M. Paul Wright in the chair. The new furnace was on strike. I guess because everyone wore their coats and shivered. The usual order of business was taken care of. Bro. Ernest Holt, with the help of George Stearns, Gerlie Bartlett and Beverly Soper installed Bro. James Leavitt and Sister Rosaline Leavitt as assistants for the coming year. It was voted to have a Junior and Bro. Holt was chosen to fill the office. Bros. Rob Bean and Joel Merrill were each reported as hospitalized. Cards are to be sent them, so any member reading this just mail them a card. Joe is at the Rumford Hospital and Rob at the CMG in Lewiston. Also while sisters Minnie Bennett and Eleanor Chapman are at their respective homes they still are on the sick list. And a few pennies spent on cards to send them will help the days to be much more sunny. After the meeting we had our Christmas tree and program. The school children from Bear River were our guests and gave some of their songs and recitations that they had had at their school party earlier in the week. They did fine and they deserved all the apples, popcorn and candy that they got. Then there was a tableau, 10 commendations for Christmas by Grange members.

The Resolution committee read their resolutions and they were accepted. Resolutions for Bro. Lon Wright. Our next meeting will be Dec. 31st. Our Janitor will be on hand and I can guarantee your feet won't be cold and you won't need to keep your coat on—I bet y'all! So come see us.—Sent in by Eva Yates.

Conservation Farming

In Oxford County
by Douglas L. Marston
Soil Conservation Service

I would like to continue this week a review of some of the conservation activities of the past year. Another big event was the Agricultural Field Day held at the C. S. Barrows & Son farm in Oxford. This event was sponsored by all the agricultural groups and organizations in the County and I think it was a great success. A livestock water pond and a sod waterway were constructed on the Barrows farm and both structures are working fine.

Farm ponds were a particularly popular practice this year and those constructing them included besides the Barrows: J. C. Conant, Canton; George Strong, Sweden; The Western Maine Sanatorium Farm, Hiram; Ernest Larkin, Brownfield; Philip Plummer, Paris; Arthur McKee, Norway; and Robert Day, Bryant Pond.

Sod waterways were constructed on the following farms: C. S. Barrows & Son, Oxford; Clyde Rowe, Paris; Eino Kuvaja, Greenwood; and Claire Thurston, Norway.

Drainage ditches were constructed on the following farms: Charles Hopkins, Rumford Point; Clarence Everett, Oxford; Maurice LaCroix, Paris; Roger Dunn, Brownfield; Philip Pinkham, Rumford; Edgar Colby, Oxford.
The drains were installed on the following farms: Fred Stearns, Albany; George Foley, Rumford; and Ervin Traak, North Paris.

near meeting a Christmas tree and gifts were enjoyed.

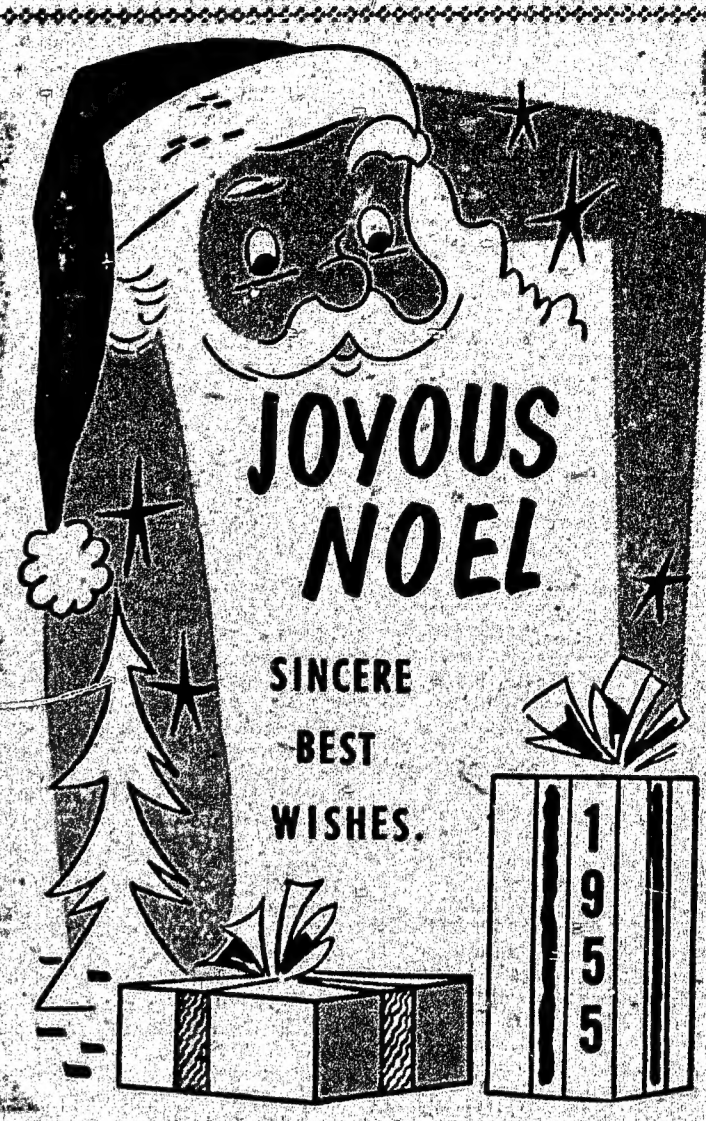

Carol Pulkkinen has had the coat removed from his broken arm.

Anyone who wishes to sing carols Saturday evening come to Beverly Melville's house at 7 o'clock.

We hope your holiday packages are filled with great joy.

The Big Take

Economic Highlights

Happenings That Affect the Future of Every Individual - National and International Problems Inseparable from Local Welfare.

In his report to the nation on the Big Four foreign ministers' conference at Geneva, Secretary Dulles said: "We must assume that the Soviet Union will continue its efforts by means short of war to make its system prevail, as it has done in the past."

Sylvia Porter, the syndicated columnist, in describing recent Soviet overtures toward Egypt and other countries, said: "The cold war continues—but the direction has clearly shifted from the military to the economic."

U S News & World Report, in the course of a long article entitled "World War III, Russian Style," observed: "Russia's technique is to wage war with ideas, not directly with guns or atomic bombs or hydrogen bombs or guided missiles. The push buttons in this modern type of war are in the hands of the diplomats and propagandists, not in the hands of soldiers."

Business Week, in commenting on the Soviet offer to help Egypt build a huge dam on the Nile, said: "Harnessing the Nile at Aswan is Egypt's dream. The country that helps her to do it will move in to stay."

The sources quoted are all authoritative, all responsible, all well informed. It is significant that what they say adds up to the same thing—that the ruble, rather than the dollar, is now Russia's principal weapon of war. And in the context of that war, to quote U. S. News again—Russia uses, as she long has used, "infiltration, subversion, revolution, diplomacy—by bluff and bluster."

This magazine's account of World penetration is an awesome one—since 1939 she has extended her dominance over 740,000,000 people in 17 nations. Equally awesome is her basic technique—though "Soviet Imperialism shows a growth without comparison in modern history," she manages to make "vast gains among one time colonial countries by convincing them that the Western nation's are the arch imperialists." She has made more effective use of the "big lie"—which simply involves repeating an untruth so often that people come to believe it—than Hitler, the "big lie's" creator, ever did. She is lavish in sending smiling, bearded delegations to the nation's abroad, and all of them, no matter what their announced purpose, are intensively trained salesmen of Communism. And now the emphasis is on trade—in the words of U S News, "The Soviets have opened a trade offensive on a front stretching all the way from Europe to the Far East."

This is what the American government must now combat. None of it has come as any surprise to the American leaders. They certainly did not take the Geneva "new look" at face value. As Secretary Dulles put it a short time ago, "We have not lowered our guard.... Our military strength.... cannot vary with their smiles or with their frowns." And Russia's obvious intentions are resulted in one increase in Western strength. They have shored up NATO, by again proving that friendly words and gestures from Kremlin leaders are not what they seem.

What of the long view? Here is how President Eisenhower sees it: "I know that no setback, no obstacle to progress will ever deter this Government and our people from the great effort to establish a just and durable peace. Success may be long in coming, but there is no temporal force so capable of helping to achieve it as the strength, the might, the spirit of 125,000,000 free Americans. In striving toward this goal, this country will never admit defeat."

GREYHOUND

THE LOW DOWN FROM HICKORY GROVE

Elementary Socialism—like your foot in the door type—is up for perusal at today's meetin'. And don't hot hum! and say socialism can't or won't happen in our land of the free. It has already happened. Hark ye.

Ownership of land or a business or an automobile is a robust instinct. Without the right to own things of your choice, as your exchequer will allow, would take all the wind from any man's sails. And that is the foot in the door idea I have in mind. Sambo does have his foot inside our threshold—his nose under the tent—and further than appears on the surface.

If Congress can put a "keep off the grass" sign at Grand Coulee or on 2 dozen other rivers or places, it would be no more difficult to lower the boom on the little fellow wantin' to build a lean-to on his woodshed. Sambo says tut! tut! to a bigger guy on a dozen rivers. Sambo has become a Big Smoke in kilowatts. He is not doin' so good, but he is doin' just the same. In the Pacific Northwest and in TVA there are power shortages. These are in Govt. operated districts.

Freedom is being blunted. Your freedom is being blunted. Your freedom to build a lean-to can be watered down. It is no time to think you are sittin' too safe, as you glance around and see what is happening in other barnyards—and to the other fellow. This is no time to hot hum! or look out the window. Confucius would say, "To Big Govt. not just pain in other guy's neck."

Yours with the low down, JO SERREA

ALIENS MUST REGISTER IN JANUARY

Commissioner J. M. Swing has announced the Immigration and Naturalization Service expects some 2,000,000 aliens to report their addresses in January under the 1956 Alien Address Report Program.

The Commissioner explained that under the 1952 Immigration and Nationality Act every alien in the United States must report his address to the Service each January.

More than 2,000,000 aliens filled out cards last January under the program, and the figure is expected to reach more than two and one-half million in 1956.

District Director Herman R. Landon of the Boston District office of the Service covering the entire New England area except the State of Vermont, stated that 350 thousand aliens registered under the program in the District last year, and a slight increase is expected under the 1956 registration.

The Immigration spokesman pointed out that every non-citizen (except persons in diplomatic status and foreign representatives assigned to the United Nations) in the United States must report his address to the Government each year in January. He said each alien must fill out a registration card available at U. S. Post Offices or at the nearest Immigration office.

Parents may fill out cards for their children under age 14. Legal guardians of aliens in custodial care should fill out the address reports for such persons. District Director Landon also said any alien who is ill may send a friend or relative to obtain the address report card for him, and return the card after it is filled out. After filling out the card at a Post Office or Immigration office the alien then gives the card to a clerk, and has fulfilled his obligation under the Act.

District Director Landon warned that any alien who willfully violates the address report provision of the law may be fined up to $200, imprisoned for 30 days, and deported.

NO PAPER CARRIED THIS STORY

No paper carried the story. Can't understand why. It was good material, packed with human interest.

It happened this way: They had planned the vacation for a long time. The children had counted the days till it began. Then they started off on that long trip they had planned so well.

The days went quickly—as vacation days do. It was on the way back—only an hour's drive from home—that the parents began talking about the time they had had. They agreed that it was the most wonderful trip of their lives. They said they would never forget it.

They were right. They never would forget it.

Here were four people with everything to live for.

And they did live.

There was no accident.

They were among the millions of people who every day drive automobiles without an accident. They were among the millions of motorists who never make the headlines.

They had a vacation the whole family enjoyed and will always remember. Their happy days had a happy ending.

The moral of the story no paper carried. It's just this: Safety doesn't make headlines. The results of common sense driving are evidenced by accidents that never happen. That's the big safety story. It's a story that happens so often it isn't news to the public.

Twelve counties are ahead of their 1954 records, headed by Cumberland, Northern Ardenne, Knox, Lincoln, and Penobscot. Boasting the largest total 4-H club enrollment are Knox, Lincoln, Penobscot, Cumberland, Kennebec, Hancock, York, and Northern Ardenne counties.

SPORTS FLASHES

The Sporting News

by J. G. Taylor Spink

The Sporting News this week passes on this crack by George Wells, general manager of the New York Yankees. When he tried to get in touch with Casey Stengel by trans-Atlantic telephone recently, he was told that Stengel had left Greece and was on his way to Istanbul, on his trip around the world.

"I hope," said Wells, "that he doesn't become a border incident."

The Chicago Cubs' star shortstop, Ernie Banks, isn't overlooking any bets. According to The Sporting News, Banks recently put this ad in a Chicago newspaper: "Mr. Grand-Slam Himself, Ernie Banks, is available for a limited number of selected tabs and appearances at luncheons, dinners and Christmas parties during December and January."

If there's any grass growing under the feet of the Dodgers during the off-season, it isn't under his feet. He's not on them. At his home in Louisville, reports The Sporting News, Pee Wee Reese of the Dodgers during the off-season, it isn't under his feet. He's not on them. At his home in Louisville, reports The Sporting News, Pee Wee Reese of the Dodgers during the off-season, it isn't under his feet. He's not on them.

The New Brooklyn third baseman, former Cub Ransom Jackson, has hit nearly one-fourth of his major league home runs against the Dodgers. The Sporting News reports that 19 of Jackson's home runs came off Dodger pitching. His very first major league homer, too, was against the Dodgers, at Wrigley Field in May of 1950. That one proved the margin of a Cub victory.

A Japanese baseball club is reported to be interested in obtaining Shorokan Larry Raines from the Cleveland Indians and is willing to put out a lot of yen for him. Raines played in Japan two years ago. But, says The Sporting News, the Indians aren't interested. At Reading last year, it says, Raines proved that he couldn't do anything except run, hit and field.

When Al Kaline took the American League batting crown this year with a mark of .340, he did something no other 20-year-old had done since Ty Cobb did it with Detroit 48 years earlier. Cobb was 20 when he won his first of 12 batting titles. Actually, says The Sporting News, Kaline is the youngest to perform the feat. Kaline was born on Dec. 19.

Officials National League figures show that Ted Kluszewski of the Reds and Willie Jones of the Phillies were the only repeaters in league fielding records this past season. Kluszewski's mark was .995, giving him the lead among National League first basemen for the fifth straight time. Jones topped the third basemen for the third straight year with a mark of .990.

STATE C. OF C. ANNOUNCES APPOINTMENT OF SAFETY COMMITTEE

The Maine State Chamber of Commerce today announced the appointment of a Safety Committee, which with local organizations, will provide an active state-wide group with hundreds of participating members. The committee was created by the State Chamber's board of directors to carry out safety programs at both the state and local levels and to work directly with the Governor's Highway Safety Committee.

George D. Beare, Bucksport, President of the State Chamber, in announcing creation of the committee, reported appointment of Leonard L. Bishop, Richmond Insurance executive and newspaper publisher as chairman. He pointed out progress in the campaign for local representation and listed the following communities where local committees have already been formed: Bridgton, Millinocket, Lewiston, Biddeford, Saco, Waterville, South Paris, Camden, Rockport, Madawaska and Milo.

Beare said, "Additional reports of new committees are being received daily and as these reports are received the chairman of the local committees are added to the roster of the state committee. We expect that this will provide a very effective arrangement which will insure the success of any special safety project undertaken in addition to the work with the Governor's Committee."

NEW UNION GOALS

"Labor unions, just now totting up fat 1955 gains, already are cooking up a batch of husky demands for the 1956 bargaining season," writes Angus Daming in the Wall Street Journal.

He goes on to describe some of the objectives various big unions want. Higher wages is one. A shorter work week—perhaps as short as 32 hours—is another. So is the guaranteed annual wage or something resembling it. So is the closed shop.

Time will tell about all this. But the top union leaders might be wise to wonder where the ever-lagging campaign for more money and other benefits for less work and less production will lead to. This has promoted inflation in the past. It has made the dollar less and less valuable. And there can be no doubt that union demands will spur automation and other labor-saving techniques.

Most important is the closed shop issue. If it becomes the general rule that a man must join and pay dues to any organization before he has the privilege of working, we can talk about American freedom in the past tense. It will be gone. The right work is the most basic of all rights. Long ago, and rightly so, outraged public opinion brought about tough laws to prevent employers from black-balling and refusing to hire members of unions. Now the shoe is on the other foot. It is the unions which want dictatorial and tyrannical power.

The characters and lives of men determine the peace, prosperity, and life of nations. —Mary Baker Eddy
